

Complimentary Student Registrations Available for the 2017 International Turf Research Conference (16-21 July)

The ITRC Student Travel Award Committee is pleased to announce that due to strong sponsor support there are additional student travel awards available in the form of complimentary 2017 ITRC registrations. To be eligible for a complimentary registration, applicants must be a current undergraduate or graduate student studying turfgrass science and must have the permission of their primary advisor to attend the ITRC. Students presenting at the conference will be given preference for the complimentary registrations, but all turfgrass students interested in attending will be eligible.

To apply for a complimentary registration, please email a 1-2 page resume/CV and brief statement (1 page maximum) to Paul Koch at plkoch@wisc.edu. The statement should include the title of your talk (if presenting), a brief description of your research, how attendance at the 2017 ITRC will advance your career goals, and the name and email address of your primary advisor.

Completed applications should be saved as a single PDF file and emailed to Paul Koch (plkoch@wisc.edu) by April 30th, 2017 at 11:59 PM. Award recipients will be notified within approximately 2 weeks. Questions regarding the application process should be directed to Paul Koch at plkoch@wisc.edu or 608-262-6531.
